

Apr 10th 1841 - P.M.Funeral Obsequies of the Late President Harrison.

The Joint Committee on the part of the Common Councils of the Cities of New York and Brooklyn have agreed upon the following programme of arrangements for the funeral solemnities on the occasion of the death of

WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON,

President of the United States, to take place in the City of New York Saturday, 10th inst.

They have unanimously selected General ROBERT BOGARDUS as Grand Marshal of the day, who has selected many gentlemen as his aids whose names appear hereafter.

The Committee have agreed upon the following order of procession:

The procession will move from the City Hall at 12 o'clock precisely, and proceed up Chatham street to East Broadway, up East Broadway to Grand street, through Grand street to the Bowery, up the Bowery to Fourteenth street, through Fourteenth street to Broadway, down Broadway to the City Hall, whence it will file off under the direction of the Grand Marshal.

The solemnities will be concluded as follows:

1. Prayer by the Rev. Dr. Cox, of the city of Brooklyn.

2. Funeral Oration by the Hon. THEODORE NEWTON.

BUYSSEN, Chancellor of the University of the City of New-York.

3. A Requiem, written by GEORGE P. MORRIS, Esq.

4. Benediction by the Right Rev. Bishop UNDERWOOD.

The ceremony to conclude with the firing of a volley by the United States troops on duty.

Under the command of the Grand Marshal.

The persons having charge of the different churches and fire alarm bells in the Cities of New York and Brooklyn, are requested to cause the bells to toll from the hour of 12 o'clock noon during the procession; and the owners and masters of vessels in the harbor, and the proprietors of public buildings, are requested to have their colors hoisted half mast from sunrise to sunset. It is respectfully recommended also, that our fellow-citizens close their places of business during the solemnities of the day, and that in the evening the places of public amusement be closed.

It is directed by the Committee that all public and licensed carriages and vehicles be withdrawn from the streets through which the procession is to pass. The Superintendents of Hackney Coaches, Stages and Carts are charged with enforcement of this order.

The owners of private carriages and vehicles are also respectfully requested to conform to the wishes of the Committee in this respect.

The Associations, Societies and Citizens, to whom places are assigned as above, are requested to appear on foot.

The Committee have unanimously resolved, that no banners bearing political devices or inscriptions, shall be admitted in the procession.

It is recommended that our fellow citizens, whether in the procession or not, wear the usual badge of mourning on the left arm.

The various Societies, Associations, and other bodies, are requested to assemble at such places as they may respectively select, and repair to the places of rendezvous designated in the annexed order.

The different divisions in the above programme, will be designated by a white banner, with the appropriate number of each in black.

The various civic Societies will walk six abreast.

ORDER OF THE PROCESSION.1st DIVISION.

GENERAL ROBERT BOGARDUS, Grand Marshal.
Col. SAMUEL D. JACKSON, and Col. PROSPER WENTWORTH, Aids.
Military escort, in the following order:

Volunteer Corps of Infantry.
(The particulars not furnished by the Committee.)

The Division of Artillery in the following order:

FIRST BRIGADE, commanded by Art. Brig. Gen. H. U. STURGEON, consisting of—

XVII REGIMENT, commanded by Col. William Jones.
XIX REGIMENT, comd. by Lieut. James J. Curtis.

III REGIMENT, comd. by Col. Thos. F. Peers.

SIXTH BRIGADE, comd. by Gen. George P. Morris, consisting of the New-York, comd. by Major John W. Avery.

XVIII REGIMENT, comd. by Col. Andrew Warner.

XII REGIMENT, comd. by George Smith.

XIII REGIMENT, comd. by Col. Alex. Muir, Jr.
FIRST BRIGADE HORSES, by Brig. General Storms.

III REGIMENT, comd. by Col. John Bloomer.

LAT. REGIMENT, comd. by Col. John Stewart.
Maj. Gen. CHARLES W. SANDFORD, commanding the Division of Artillery and Staff.

Military of the City of Brooklyn.

A Battalion of Light Infantry, under comd. of Col. Tolford.

DIVISION.

GILBERT HOPKINS, Asst. to the Grand Marshal.

OFFICATING CLERGYMAN AND ORATOR OF THE DAY, in a carriage.

The Reverend Clergy.

Major Gen. SCOTT, comd. the Military District, and Aids.

Col. J. RENSHAW, comd. the Naval Station, and Aids.

Band of Music.

A Detachment of U. S. Marines, under command of Harris, U. S. A. as a Guard of Honor.

2nd DIVISION.

Borne by Sailors of the Navy of the U. S., and who have served on board the Frigate Constitution, under command of Com. Sonds.

A Detachment of U. S. Army, under comd. of Capt. Dunnick, U. S. M. C., as a Guard of Honor.

HORSE.

Captured, and led by William D. Nicholls, an aged Servant of the deceased President.

Twenty-Six Pall Bearers, (corresponding with the number of States) in Carriges.

Major and Acting Mayor of New-York.

Major of Brooklyn, and Mr. VAN BUREN, Ex-President of the United States, and Suite, in carriages.

The Common Councils of New York and Brooklyn, as mourners, in the following order, viz:

The Board of Aldermen, preceded by their Sergeant-at-Arms, headed by their President.

The Board of Assessors, preceded by their Sergeant-at-Arms, headed by their President.

The Officers of both Boards.

The Common Council of the City of Brooklyn, headed by their President.

The Officers of the Common Council of Brooklyn.

III DIVISION.—THOMAS ASHBY, Marshal.

Governor and Lieut. Governor of the State of New-York.

Heads of Departments of the State.

The Senate of the State.

House of Assembly of the State.

Members of the Senate and of the House of Representatives of the U. S. Society of the Cincinnati, & Revolutionary Soldiers.

Ex-Mayors, Ex-Aldermen and Assessors of N. Y. and Brooklyn.

Heads of Departments of the City Government.

IV DIVISION.—Wm. SAM'L JOHNSON, Marshal.

Foreign Ministers and Consuls.

Ex Members of Congress and of the State Legislature.

The Judges of the U. S. Court and City Courts.

Members of the Bar.

Vth DIVISION.—THOMAS SEDGWICK, Marshal.

The Sheriff of the City and County of New York, and Under Sheriff of New-York, with their suites of office.

The Marshal of the United States and his Deputies.

The Register, County Clerk and Coroner.

Police Magistrates and Officers, with their suites.

VIIth DIVISION.—WILLIAM T. TOMPKINS, Marshal.

Militia Officers off duty.

Collector, Naval Officer, and Surveyor of the Port, and all other Civil Officers of the United States and State of New-York.

VIIIth DIVISION.—FRANCIS P. PARKE, Marshal.

Fire Department of the City of New-York.

Exempt Firemen.

VIIth DIVISION.—WAGNER HAWKES, Marshal.

The Grand Lodge of the State of New-York.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

XVth DIVISION.—THOMAS W. TUCKER, Marshal.

The President, Trustees, Faculty and Students of Columbia College.

The President, Faculty and Students of the University.

Medical Society, Physicians and Medical Students.

Teachers and Pupils of the Grammar Schools of Columbia College and of the University.

Xth DIVISION.—JOHN RAY, Marshal.

Teachers and Pupils of the several Public Schools, and other Seminaries of Learning.

XIth DIVISION.—GEORGE W. HENRY, Marshal.

A Division of United States Seamen, and Pupils of U. S. Naval School, under command of Capt. J. T. Newton.

XIIth DIVISION.—MINSTER THOMPSON, Marshal.

The Army and Navy Society of Columbus.

The Democratic Whig General Committee.

The General Committee of Democrats, White Young Men.

The Democratic-Republican Young Men's General Committee.

Central Democratic Republican Committee of the City.

Tipperary and other Harrison Associations.

Munni Club, Union Association.

XIVth DIVISION.—J. UPTON, of Brooklyn, Marshal.

The Civic Association from the City of Brooklyn.

The Phoenix Association from the village of Williamsburgh.

XVth DIVISION.—WILLIAM GRACE, Marshal.

The St. George's Benevolent Society.

The St. Andrew's Benevolent Society.

German Benevolent Society, & French Benevolent Society.

Italian Benevolent Society.

The Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

The New England Association.

XVIIth DIVISION.—A. D'AREZ, Marshal.

The Hibernian Benevolent Society.

The Shamrock Benevolent Burial Society.

XVIIIth DIVISION.—MARCELLUS EPIK, Marshal.

American Institute, Mechanics' Institute.

The Agricultural Society.

Benevolent Association of Rock-Binders.

XIXth DIVISION.—J. M. HULLYER, Marshal.

Leather Dressers' Society.

Smith Society, Gold and Silver Artisans.

XIXth DIVISION.—S. JONES MUMFORD, Marshal.

The Butchers of the City of New York, and Brooklyn.

The Cartmen of the City of New York.

XXth DIVISION.—J. M. HULLYER, Marshal.

Society Library Association—American Library.

Athenaeum Association—Mercurial Library Association.

American Society of Young Men—New York Society of Letters.

XXIst DIVISION.—J. L. FRANCIS, Marshal.

General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen, instituted in 1785.

XXIIth DIVISION.—WILLIAM M. MORRIS, Marshal.

Journeyman Tailors' United Benevolent Society.

Journeyman Stone Cutters' Association.

Trades Society of Journeyman Sail Makers.

XXIIIth DIVISION.—JOHN D. VAN BUREN, Marshal.

United States Naval Lyceum—American Academy of Fine Arts.

National Academy of Design—Apollo Association.

Chamber of Commerce, & Board of Trade.

XXIVth DIVISION.—GEORGE F. EASTMAN, Marshal.

Wardens of the Port and Harbour Masters.

Marine Society.

Ship Masters and Mate of Vessels in Port.

Paul Jones' Parading Club.

XXVth DIVISION.—RUFUS PRIME, Marshal.

All Societies and Associations not above enumerated in the order in which they shall report themselves to the Grand Marshal.

XXVIth DIVISION.—HAROLD TEELE, Marshal.

Captain of the Watch and Watchmen.

Lamplighters.

XXVIIth DIVISION.—JOHN A. MITCHELL and MARSHAL J. BACON, Marshal.

Citizens of other States.

Citizens of New York, arranged by wards.

The various municipal and civic bodies above enumerated, will assemble at 11 o'clock precisely, at the following places, preparatory to being brought into column:

Officiating Clergyman, Orator of the Day, the Clergy, General Scott and Aids, and Commodore Renshaw and Aids, at No. 8 City Hall.

Mayors of New York and Brooklyn, and ex-Presidents at No. 8 City Hall.

United States Troops at the west end of the City Hall.